RIDES CAUGHNAWAGA AND WINS OCCIDENTAL.

Another beautiful day for racing and a fairly interesting card served to draw 15,000 persons to dravesend yesterday, where form four favorites, a second and a third choice passing the judges in triumph. The sport was marred by considerable foul riding and an unfortunate send-off in the Occidental Handicap, at a mile and a furlong, in which the favorite, Charles Elwood, and Warranted, an outsider, were left standing still at the post. This race was the feature of the card, Charles Elwood closing at twos, with Hurstbourne at 11 to 5 and Caughnawaga reduced to 13 to 5. The last named ridden by Odom, who gave a superb exhibition on a tired horse, driving a gruelling finish in the stretch. With the favorite left, the field dashed off, Bill Daly's Himself, 30 to 1, going to the front with a great turn of speed. River Pirate, well backed at sevens, followed him up the backstretch for nearly three-quarters of a mile, where Caughnawaga passed him and challenged Himself. Hurstbourne, who was shut off on the turn, got plain sailing at the head of the stretch, where Odom put the whip to Caughnawaga, who was beginning to stop, but the latter responded gamely and had a good lead over Hurstbourne to the last sixteenth pole. There it was that Hurst-bourne made a bold bid, and for a moment it looked as if he might win. But again Odom drew his whip, and in a terrific drive he landed staggering Caughnawaga winner by a head in the fast time of 1:52 3-5, a new record drew his whip, and in a terrific drive he landed the staggering Caughnawaga winner by a head in the fast time of 1:52 3-5, a new record for the stake and three-fifths of a second behind the best figures for the track. Himself took third money, five lengths back.

Andrew Miller's Wild Thyme, a receding favorite, won the Sea Breeze Stakes, for three-year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth, by the shortest of heads. Rostand made the running to the head of the stretch, where Wild Thyme, O'Neill up, got her head in front. Rostand, however, was not to be denied, and hung on gamely to the end, finishing second, a length and a half before W. C. Whitney's Payne, who was liberally supported at twos and got what looked like a poor ride from Redfern, the colt swerving badly when pinched at the final furlong mark. The time was 1:46 4-5, a new record for the race.

Shorthose, an odds-on choice in the last race, a handleap for three-year-olds, at a mile and a sixteenth, interfered with Leader at the lower turn and lost so much ground that he could not get inside the money. Sir Troubadour, 200 to 1, was in front for five furlongs, and then gave way to Sir Voorhies 5 to 1. Bolesen kept the latter in front until straightened out for home, when Fuller challenged with E. R. Thomas's Duke of Kendal, second choice, who won in a sensational drive by a head. Sir Voorhies finishing four lengths in front of Bill Daly's Colonsay, 25 to 1. The time was 1:47. The stewards called both Odom and Hicks into the stand after the race and reprimanded them for rough riding.

Frank Farrell's King Pepper, a 7 to 5 favorite, took the opening event, for platers, at about six furlongs, in a drive by a head from Van Ness, second choice, who was pocketed for nearly half a mile. King Pepper made all of the pace, killing off Counterpoise and Demurrer at the turn. Princess Tulane, 20 to 1, was third, six lengths back and a head before Demurrer. The time was 1:10.

With E. R. Thomas's St. Valentine scratched the talent made W. C. Whitney's Armenia the choice in TURF GOSSIP AT GRAVESEND. IN THE BASEBALL WORLD Plunger Ryan Beats Four Races, but Cur talls His Wagers.

No plunging was indulged in yesterday by John J. Ryan, the get-rich-quick man, at Gravesend, probably for the reason that in view of publicity he had concluded to "go easy." But he had good wagers on King Pepper, Armenia, Wild Thyme and Caughnawaga, who won, but he dropped a fair sized bundle on Shorthose. The fact that Ryan was not permitted to make book at New Orleans last winter and is still in disfavor with the Western Jockey Club have caused Eastern turfmen to ask one another how long he will be allowed to continue his operations on metropolitan tracks.

Frank Farrell's King Pepper, who has won his last three races in fine style, was cut down yesterday and will not be able to go to the post again for some tilme.

An 80 pound boy caused much merriment for those in the paddock between the third and fourth races yesterday. He hailed from Tony Aste's stable and crossed the track to the infield in spite of the warnings of a race track cop, who finally grabbed the youngster in his arms and lugged him back to the paddock. The boy struggled to get free and finally tripped the cop. The latter called finally tripped the cop. The latter called for assistance and two other bluecoats rushed to the scene of the conflict, with the result that the midget was lugged off to the lock-up to remain the rest of the day.

Fuller was fined $50 for disobedience at the post in the second race.

Newton Bennington has purchased the two-year-old Applause from J. E. Madden, price not stated.

The belef that there is a conspiracy among certain riders to injure the colored jockey Hicks was intensified when he was almost knocked off Leader by the interference of Shorthose. But in this case it would be an injustice to accuse Odom of intentional foul riding.

Bryn Mawr, the colt who would probably have beaten Armenia in the second race with an even break, is one of the handsomest two-year-olds in training. He is by Atheling—Maggie Weir and has been improving with every race.

Father Bill Daly was the subject of more unpleasant comment when Himself, 30 to 1, and Colonsay, 25 to 1, ran third in the fourth and sixth races, respectively.

and Colonsay, 25 to 1, ran third in the fourth and sixth races, respectively.

Since the Sheepshead Bay meeting about one hundred grand stand betting commissioners have been laid off, a similar number remaining to shave prices in transactions with the women bettors.

L. V. Bell and Trainer McCormick cut loose one of their characteristic good things in Emergency in the fifth race. It was fortunate for them, so turfmen said, that the Mexican Stable's Revelation met with an accident, however, as the Horoscope filly had worked phenomenally and was heavily backed by her owner and friends.

Bob Smith had a killing planned with Telephone, who ran second in the fifth race at 25 to 1. The tip was circulated in the city poolrooms and the colt was shrewdly played at the track.

It is understood that E. R. Thomas won a heavy wager on Duke of Kendal in the last race, a bunch of money going into the ring at the last moment, when the price had gone up to 5 to 1 in numerous books.

A. The clubs of Columbus, Cleveland and Toledo have been brought into line by A. R. Pardington for an Onio division, and F. C. Lewin of Philadelphia is to organize the clubs of Pennsylvania. An emblematic button and an individual membership card were adopted. A committee on plan and scope was appointed as follows: Judge W. H. Hotchkiss, Buffalo, chairman; Lee Richmond, Rochester; A. H. O. Baechle, Utica; W. F. Wait, Auburn; W. E. Scarritt, New York, and A. R. Pardington, Long Island. Sanction for a race meet at the Brighton Beach track on Oct. 31 was granted; also one for a two weeks' racing carnival on the beach at Ormond, Fla, from Jan. 25 to Feb. 6. Dr. Julian A. Chase of the Rhode Island club, president, occupied the chair at the meeting. Others present were H. W. Whipple of the New Jersey club, W. E. Scarritt, A. C. A.: A. R. Pardington and F. G. Webb, Long Island club, and F. C. Lewin of the Philadelphia club.

Bostwick from the board of governors, on the ground of ill health and absence abroad, was accepted and resolutions of thanks and esteem adopted.

The following new members were elected, Mr. Temple, being the first man to be elected to a life membership: W. C. Temple, Pittsburg, C. K. G. Billings, P. F. Collier, Ernest Groesbeck, P. D. Martin, Hugh J. Grant, Charles E. Miller of New York and Lyman Delano of Barrytown, N. Y. Nearly all these were proposed by Col. J. J. Astor.

Thirty-five entries for the run to Boston and back, which starts on Friday, were announced.

Entries for the endurance contest of the National Association of Automobile Manu-Oct. 6-14, closed at 4 o'clock yesterday. was announced that no list would be given out for a couple of days, because all entries mailed before 4 o'clock to-day will be accepted. However, on Monday night there were thirty-six entries in hand and enough more expected to make in the neighborhood of fifty. As the run is to be a more trying ordeal than any ever run here or abroad, this is considered a very good showing of candidates.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Weimer disposed of the New Yorks to-day almost as easily as on last Saturday. The visitors' only run came in the ninth on McGann's double, a wide return of the ball and a long fly. The Cubs hit McGinnity savagely in two innings, and their score would have been much larger but for the great outfield work of Mertes.
Kling had his hand split by a foul inthe last inning and retired in favor of Raub. McGinnity was good for two innings. In the third, after two men were out. Slagle, McCarthy, and Williams rapped successive two-baggers and McGinnity made a wild throw. Ihree runs galloped home. In the fourth Kling hit safe, Evers sacrificed and Casey drove forth a double. Weimer struck out, Slagle

PITTSBURG, Sept. 22.—The best feature of to-day's game was the brilliant work of Flood who made a number of sensational plays, some of which looked impossible. Almost all of his chances were of the most difficult character. Schmidt kept the hits far apart until the last of the ninth, when Clarke came up for Thompson and with Lobert on third drove the ball to the extreme end of the grounds for a home run, tying the score. Brooklyn won in the tenth on consecutive hits off Kennedy. BROOKLYN. 5: PITTERURG. 4.

NEW ONE MADE BY FANNY DIL-LARD AT COLUMBUS.

Goes Mile in Second Heat in 2:08 3-4 -Major C. Beaten in the Race and a Lot of Money Lost-Billy Buck and John M. Win Their Respective Events.

COLUMBUS, Ohio., Sept. 22.-Fast time was the order of to-day's racing, the 2:06 class, pacing, furnishing Fanny Dillard the opportunity to break the world's record for pacing mares by going the second heat in 2:08%, reducing the record of 2:04%, jointly held by Lady of the Manor, Dariel and Mazetta. The mare, piloted by Snow, went game mile, reaching the half in 1:01 with the first quarter in 30 seconds, a two-minute gait. Major C. was heavily played, but he never was in the going owing to his bad start in the first heat and breaking so badly in the second that he was distanced. The betting was at odds of 4 to 1 on him and barrels of money were lost. Captain Sphinx did of money were lost. Captain Sphinx did the business, carrying him like a whirlwind to the half, where Fanny Dillard took him up and set a pace just too fast.

YALE GYMNAST FOR ST. LOUIS. One May Compete for Championship-The New Indoor Field.

New HAVEN, Sept. 22. - Julian Curtiss of New York, a member of the graduate advisory committee on Yale athletics, was in town to-day and with Mike Murphy looked over the layout for the proposed $30,000 indoor base-ball field and running track. The plan, which meets with the approval of Mr. Curtiss, is to enclose the entire lot in the rear of the gymnasium under glass, so that the baseball and track men can practise there in the winter Mr. Curtiss looked over the changes made during the vacation in the Yale gymnasium which included putting in new shower baths and remodelling the crews' quarters. changes cost about $15,000, and Dr. W. G. A nderson, the director of the gymnasium announced to-night that several thousand dollars more would be spent at once in further improving and changing the interior of the dollars more would be spend at once in turner improving and changing the interior of the building.

Capt. Anderson of the Yale gymnastic team said to-day that it was being planned to have the Yale team send a representative to the St. Louis exposition to compete for the all-American championship. No man will be sent unless the team wins both the intercollegiate and the Columbia meets.

Fat Man Causes an Accident.

The efforts of a fat man to get off a street car in a hurry will probably cause Eugene Canini, 14 years old, of 29 Mott street, to ose all the toes on his right foot. The boy was standing in a crowded Third avenue car early yesterday morning, and when it reached Seventeenth street the fat man suddenly decided to alight. He swept through the space between the seats, carrying the boy with him, and the car wheel crushed the lad's foot. When a policeman arrived the heavy person couldn't be found. The boy was taken to Bellevue Hospital.

DIED FOR A CIGAR. Prosperous Farmer Fatally Hurt Because

He Refused to Pay. FREEHOLD, N. J., Sept. 22.-Because he refused to pay for a cigar at a local cigar store John McCue received injuries from which he died last night. According to the Vanderveer brothers, proprietors of the cigar store, McCue had annoyed them by taking cigars, ordering them to be charged and then failing to pay for them. McCue was a prosperous farmer and the proprietors of the store thought he would eventually pay for the cigars.

Finding that he was not disposed to settle his bill, William Vanderveer warned him that he could not have any more goods About ten days ago McCue again entered the store and asked for cigars. His re-quest was complied with and he picked up one and put it into his mouth, making the usual request. Mr. Vanderveer grabbed the cigar, threw it into a cuspidor and ordered McCue to leave the store. The latter refused to go and a souffie ensued.

When near the door McCue slipped from when hear the door McCue shipped from the grasp of Vanderveer and fell heavily on the doorstep. He did not get up and Vanderveer found that he was unconscious. He was carried to his carriage and taken to his home, where he remained in an un-conscious condition until death.

His relatives, among whom is Charles McCue, a prominent liveryman of Sea-bright and Lakewood, are investigating the affair with a view to prosecuting the cigar dealer should any criminal action be proved. McCue was about 70 years old and one of the best known Catholics in this section of the county.

RAN OFF WITH TROUSSEAU. Twas in Trunks Which the Police Say

Barker Stole Along With a Wagon. George Barker, who gave two addresses to the Harlem police, was held for examination in the Harlem court yesterday on the charge of having stolen two express wagons and two trunks containing the wedding clothes of Edward Wadsworth and his wife of 670 East 137th street.

The couple were married on Sept. 6 and had to borrow their wedding outfits. One express wagon was found by Barker, the police say, on Sept. 5 in front of Wadsworth's home. He drove to 330 East 125th street and nobody knows what became of the horse and wagon. Barker, according to the police, then employed Harry Leichman, an expressman, of 123d street and Seventh avenue to take the trunks to another address, and said he would go along. While Leichman was delivering another trunk Barker drove off with the trunks and wagon to Brooklyn, where he is said to have pawned the clothing and then left the horse and wagon standing in Adams street, where it was found by the police and later claimed by Leichman.

Barker is believed by the police to be one of the gang who, some months ago, stole several loaded express wagons and, after taking the contents, left the rigs in the Man, Who Were a Uniform, Was Frighten Off by Two Women.

Bertha Woolhieser, 19 years old, a stenog. rapher employed in this borough, was attacked in Elmhurst on Monday meht as she was going to her home on Riker avenue from the home of a relative a few blocks away. Her assailant wore a brass buttoned uniform of some kind and is believed to have been an employee of a trolley company. Miss Woolhieser offered her watch to the man to let her go, but he told her he did not want her valuables and started to drag her into a lot. She then screamed and fought and was shoot exhausted when help reached her.
